

Sunday, August 2, 2009

Preservation Worcester Vegas casino fundraiser

Preservation Worcester held a Las Vegas-style casino fundraiser in March at the Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts in Worcester. Local celebrities and Preservation Worcester volunteers served as casino dealers before and after a performance of "The Rat Pack is Back," a nightclub quartet. Proceeds benefit Preservation Worcester, which works to preserve the buildings and sites that represent the culture, history and architecture of Worcester.