

From the rooftop, reeling in Christmas spirit

Posted Nov 28, 2016 at 7:29 PM Updated Nov 28, 2016 at 7:29 PM

Sean Waithe pulls a rope attached to Christmas lights up to the roof of the Denholm Building on Main Street Monday. Mr. Waithe, project manager for Immedia Event Productions, and others hung 24 strings of lights in the form of a tree on the front of the building. The Denholm Building has not been decorated with a tree in more than 40 years. The lights are part of Preservation Worcester's "Denholms for the Holidays" on Dec. 10. A retro Denhoms will be decked out both inside and outside, reminiscent of the golden days of shopping in downtown Worcester. T&G Staff/Rick Cinclair

By Rick Cinclair
Telegram & Gazette Staff

WORCESTER - Sean Waithe pulls a rope attached to Christmas lights up to the roof of the Denholm Building on Main Street Monday. Mr. Waithe, project manager for Immedia Event Productions, and others hung 24 strings of lights in the form of a tree on the front of the building. The Denholm Building has not been decorated with a tree in more than 40 years. The lights are part of Preservation Worcester's "Denholms for the Holidays" on Dec. 10. A retro Denhoms will be decked out both inside and outside, reminiscent of the golden days of shopping in downtown Worcester. T&G Staff/Rick Cinclair