

Worcester Telegram & Gazette
Sunday, November 19, 2017

‘Favorite Places’ exhibit set for Denholm Building

Posted Nov 19, 2017 at 6:00 AM

“Favorite Places,” presented by Preservation Worcester, is a photography exhibit on view from Nov. 21 through mid-January in the display window of the United States Post Office in the Denholm Building. The images are the work of Worcester photographer Randle Stock, who was chosen for this project by a Preservation Worcester juried competition. The show features a set of photographs of 20 Worcester citizens, who are active in the community, each interacting with his or her favorite Worcester historical building.

What: Favorite Places Opening Reception

When: 5 to 6:30 p.m. Nov. 21

Where: Denholm Building, Lobby, 484 Main St., Worcester