Some of Worcester's most prominent properties are being dressed up with festive decorations, wreaths and ferns ahead of this weekend's annual Holiday Stroll by Preservation Worcester.

Nine homes in various neighborhoods will be a part of the Sunday stroll, varying in style from Georgian and Greek Revival, Colonial, Craftsman/English Cottage, Colonial Revival, Classical Revival and Queen Anne Style.

All of the homes were owned or are occupied by prominent Worcesterites of past and present.

An addition to decor, Christmas trees and poinsettias, many of the homes will have live music during the stroll.

"Whether you are looking for ideas for your own home or are interested in the rare opportunity to view exceptional architecture and design, we know that our Stroll will provide a wonderful kick-off to the holiday season," Preservation Worcester stated in a release.

The stroll goes from noon to 5 p.m. An after party will go on from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at a location participants will learn about when they pick up their program, that serves as their ticket to the event. Entry to the party is available by advance registration only.

At a historic estate to be on the stroll Sunday, Preservation Worcester volunteers were decorating mantles and more on Tuesday.

The estate was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1980. The register lists 1900 to 1924 as a significant period for the home and 1914 as a significant year in particular.

Advance tickets are $25 for Preservation Worcester members and $30 for non-members. Tickets purchased the day of the stroll are $35 and only available at the door. To attend both the stroll and party it is $65 for members and $75 for non-members.

Attendees must have a tour brochure to enter the homes. After purchasing tickets, brochures can be picked up starting at noon on Sunday at Preservation Worcester.

Tickets can be purchased online here. For more information, visit The Preservation Worcester website or call 508-754-8760.
